Supervisor says gangs, fire need to be priorities

By Gideon Marcus

SAN MARCOS —

Cooperation is the key to stopping gang violence before it destroys the area, the county supervisor told local residents.

Supervisor Bill Horn of San Diego County District 5, which includes most of the northern third of the county, appeared at San Marcos City Hall to deliver his state of North County address March 20. San Marcos Mayor Jim Desmond was master of ceremonies.

Horn first addressed the state of the county's fire-readiness, touting new equipment purchases, upgraded communications systems, updated building codes and a new Emergency Center.

promoted Jase Prewett to director of purchasing for the homebuilder's San Diego/Riverside division.

JASE PREWETT

Prewett has been with the Del Mar-based builder for five years. He is responsible for all aspects of purchasing for Brookfield's new home projects throughout San Diego and Riverside counties.

Teams take on Surf Bowl

COAST CITIES — Carlsbad High School and Francis Parker School were among a dozen teams who competed this spring in the La Jolla Surf Bowl 2008, the regional competition for the 11th annual National Ocean Sciences Bowl.

Surf Bowl is a fast-paced academic bowl that challenges student teams to answer questions about ocean life and the marine environment in "Jeopardy"-style matches. The event was held at both Scripps Institution of Oceanography, UCSD and Birch Aquarium at Scripps Education Classrooms.

Golf tourney aids TERI

OCEANSIDE — Dewhurst & Associates, a family-based custom home building and remodeling company, is proud to announce its sponsorship of The Training Education & Research Institute's 19th annual Dirce Schwarz Memorial Golf Tournament on May 2. Tee off is at 12:30 p.m. at The Rancho Bernardo Inn, 17550 Bernardo Oaks Drive. Golfing prices are $275 for individuals and $1,000 for a foursome.

TERI is an Oceanside-based nonprofit corporation serving individuals with autism, developmental and learning disabilities and their families. Tournament proceeds will help build TERI's Center for Research & Life Planning, which is scheduled to break ground this year.

DOG DELIGHTS

Paper Rose had a busy winter. The gift store moved Feb. 2 to 705 N. Vulcan Ave, just south of Leucadia Boulevard and has added Moon Mania Doggy Café to its location. Visitors and their dogs simply enter via the side gate to the garden area that houses the doggy café as well as three small cottages full of Paper Rose merchandise. The gourmet natural dog treats include pup pizza, pup cakes, Kung Fu Fido Fortune cookies for dogs as well as Doggy Java, a noncaffeinated vitamin drink served in a big dog-sized cup and saucer. It also offers sweet treats for humans too, plus free coffee and tea. The main cottage also houses all the greeting cards and stationery. Upcoming events will include an art fair, psychic fair and a "Dog-Day Afternoon tea party." For details, call (858) 366-5968. Courtesy photo
